

Why would the federal govt want to limit the ability for a company such as XM radio to provide weather and traffic? It is one of the most ridiculous things I have ever heard, As a consumer I want it. I know radio lobby groups pay big money but listen to a republican voter that will NOY vote for anyone associated with making this change.

Brian Reed